Church will render two choruses; Miss Florence Durham will play a violin solo, and the orchestra will assist the song service. Strangers are cordially welcome.

Catarrh can be successfully treated only by purifying the blood, and the true blood purifier is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

New Year's Eve at the Y. M. C. A.

On Tuesday night the concert by the Wesleyan Glee Club will be given and a full house is expected.

After the concert an interesting entertainment will be given from 10:30 to 1:30. From 11:30 to 12 a watch night service will be held, conducted by Rev. J. J. Hall. Following this there will be an observance of the New Year's arrival, in which refreshments will take a prominent part. All who will come are invited.

January Programme.

A series of strong addresses upon special subjects has been arranged by the Religious Work Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, to be delivered upon the four Sundays of January, by Rev. Dr. Barton, Rev. Dr. Tucker, Bishop Randolph and Rev. A. S. Lloyd.

Union Meeting of Colored Societies.—There will be a union meeting of Christian societies (colored) at Bank-Street Baptist Church this afternoon at 5 o'clock. A report of the work done by the respective organizations this year will be made by the following representatives: For the Christian Endeavor of Norfolk Mission College, John H. Bowden; for the Epworth League of St. John's A. M. E. Church, John H. Portlock; Young People's Union of Bank-Street Baptist Church, Alex. Gregory; Young People's Union of Bute-Street Baptist Church, John H. Bowden; Christian Endeavor of St. Luke's A. M. E. Church, Geo. W. Foreman; Y. M. C. A., Jas. M. Collins.

AMUSEMENTS.

"TOWN TOPICS." Tuesday Matinee and Night.—This travesty performance will be given at the Academy of Music next Tuesday, matinee and night. The Philadelphia Record of Tuesday, says:

"Town Topics" is one of those non-descript affairs which depend entirely for their success upon the versatility of the performers, and in this instance nothing more could be desired. The company is a large one, and the specialties were all of a pleasing character. The honors of the evening were carried off by those funny comedians, Wood and Shepard, whose musical skits have won for them a high reputation. The Sisters Merritts danced their way into the good graces of the audience at once, and Conroy and McFarland further enhanced their reputations as clever Irish comedians, and the "Bloomer Girls" were some of the most pleasing features.

The prices are: Tuesday matinee, adults, 50c; children, 25c. Tuesday night, 50c, 50c, 75c, and $1.00.

"LILLIAN RUSSELL IN 'LA PERICHOLE'."—Never in the history of the Academy of Music has such a well-equipped operatic company appeared upon its stage, as that which will furnish the bill of amusement next Thursday evening. The Lillian Russell Opera Company, which will appear in a notable production of "Offenbach's La Perichole," is by long odds the most perfectly equipped as it is the largest musical organization which has ever come to the principal cities of the South. It is headed, of course, by Lillian Russell, the beautiful "Lil" over whom artists and poets have raved and whose glorious voice and brilliant vocalization have made her almost deified of the music lovers of this country and England. The history of this little Western girl, who now rules "Queen" absolute in a realm more substantial than those of most princesses and potentates, would fill in full, read like a modern romance.

The opera will be accepted stage production more rich and more beautiful. It is said, than ever given a work of such musical nature before. Miss Russell's company, numbers nearly ninety people and includes a number of other artists nearly as famous as the respective lines as the "star." Among them are Joseph Herbert, Freddie Solomons, Richard Ling, William Blaisdel, Helen Westford, Al. Holbrook, Marie Celestine, Suzanne Leonard, Vera Blinn, Martha Mahabian, and Florence Wragland. The stage manager is Max Freeman, and the specially augmented orchestra will be directed by Mr. Steinfeld. This will be Miss Russell's first visit to Norfolk.

A table of reserved seats will commence at 9 o'clock (Monday) morning at 9 o'clock. Prices: First floor, $1.50, and $2; balcony, 50c, 75c, and $1.50.

ROBERT MANTLE.—This clever actor gave two performances at the Academy of Music yesterday afternoon and evening, the afternoon performance being "Monsieur," and that of the evening "The Corsican Brothers." On both occasions the presentations were excellent, and gave great pleasure to the auditors.

A Small List of Offenders and Not An Intensely Interesting Case.

TRIED BEFORE JUSTICE BURROUGHS.

The Business of the Court of Law and Chancery—Transfers of Real and Personal Property Recorded in the Clerk's Office—An Unusually Dull Day About the City Hall.

Justice Burroughs had a very small and unimportant docket in the Police Court yesterday. There were no cases that were of sufficient importance to especially note, and are simply given in a copy of the docket as follows:

James A. Christian, colored, breach of the peace; fined $1 and costs.

Horace Thomas, colored, breach of the peace; fined $1 and costs.

Mary Wilson, colored, fornication; dismissed with $1.25 costs.

Peter Smith, colored, adultery; dismissed with $1.25 costs.

William Miller, alias Frank Prout, larceny; continued ten days for examination.

Isaac Colombo, white, nuisance; fined $1 and costs.

David Roskam, white, gaming house; dismissed.

Jim Watkins, colored, three warrants false pretenses; dismissed at costs of complainant.

William Dyson, white, drunk; dismissed.

C. Walker, Ogle Cook, white, drunks; fined $1 and costs.

Court of Law and Chancery.

Judgment was yesterday entered in the Court of Law and Chancery in favor of Mrs. Jane Parker against the city of Norfolk for $500. The judgment was for damages sustained by Mrs. Parker owing to falling over an obstacle on Waverly street last summer.

A motion for a new trial was refused in the case of Ida E. Oliver and Kate Oliver vs. the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York, and it was ordered that the plaintiffs recover from the defendant the amount previously allowed by the jury as damages for failure of the defendant to deliver certain life insurance policies on the life of Mr. C. R. Oliver, deceased. Execution was suspended and appeals will be taken to the Supreme Court.

Judge Martin granted a decree of absolute divorce in the case of Lulu F. Cameron vs. William D. Cameron.

Writ of Superseas.

On the petition of Katherine R. Grover and V. D. Grover, her husband, in the suit of Grover et als. vs. Foster and others, a writ of superseas was issued from the Supreme Court of Appeals at Richmond on the 23d day of December, ordering the clerk to remove to that court. The writ involves large property interests in Norfolk, and will be watched with interest.

Suits Entered.

Southern Store Works Company vs. John T. Howard and Edward H. Odendhal. Late partners trading under the style of Howard & Odendhal. In assumpsit. Damages, $1,500. Edw. R. Baird, p. q.

Deeds of Bargain and Sale.

Mollie Young, alias Mary Walker, to Lebbie Roach, alias Mary Elizabeth Shaffer, furniture, etc. In the house No. 147 West street, also the interest of the grantor in the unexpired lease of said premises. Consideration, $1,900.

The Galling Printing and Lithographing Company to Walter J. Dozier, the plant, stock, and good will, and other contents of the premises No. 52 Reanoke avenue. Consideration, $2,600.

An Error Corrected.

In our report under the head of court news yesterday we stated in reporting the trouble between Mr. H. T. Minter and Mr. R. L. Holland, in Atlantic City Ward, that the evidence proved Mr. Holland to be the aggressor, and that he was fined $7.25, and that the warrant against Mr. Minter was dismissed. This was wrong. It should have been that the evidence proved Mr. Minter to be the aggressor, and that he was fined $7.25, while Mr. Holland was vindicated. We publish the above in justice to Mr. Holland.

The United Charities.

Following is the report of the United Charities for the week ending December 23th: Allowances of groceries and provisions, 3,229; loads of wood and coal, 75. Contributions received as follows: O. H. Another Stroke of Paralysis. The many friends of Mr. K. C. Murray, editor of The Landmark, and Superintendent of the Public Schools of Norfolk, will be pained to learn that he has suffered another stroke of paralysis affecting his left side. It occurred while he was on the train route to visit his father, at Coyner's Springs, Va. He was transferred to an ambulance train at Ivor and brought back home yesterday unconscious.

Funeral of H. J. Young.

The funeral of Henry J. Young, who died at the City Hospital for the Sick Friday morning, will take place from the First Presbyterian Church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The deceased had been ill for some time and leaves a wife and one child. He was well known, having at one time been janitor of the Y. M. C. A. building and later was connected with the city jail. He was a member of Palestine Tent No. 40, I. O. Rechabites.

WEATHER REPORT.

Forecast for To-day.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 29, 1895. For Virginia—Fair, warmer, south winds. For North Carolina—Fair, warmer, south winds.

The pressure has risen with great rapidity over the Middle and North Rocky Mountain Districts. The storm has moved eastward slowly, and is now central over Lake Superior.

Under these conditions high northerly winds have developed along the entire Rocky Mountain slope.

A cold wave has formed in the northwest and will probably advance eastward and southward during Saturday. It will not reach the Atlantic coast before Monday if at all.
